EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

1. This investigation was initiated after a video was posted on the Internet apparently depicting four Marines urinating on enemy corpses. Widespread media attention ensued and resulted in senior U.S. and Afghan government officials publicly condemning the acts of desecration depicted. Investigative efforts identified the individuals depicted as [REDACTED] X/RICHARDS, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] and that the video was produced during a mission conducted in Afghanistan on 27Jul11, by elements primarily drawn from Third Battalion, Second Marine Regiment (3/2). Photograph and video files were recovered from electronic media of a Marine unassociated with the mission, but who had deployed with 3/2. A review of the files resulted in the discovery of a high quality version of the urination video, as well as apparent "trophy" photographs depicting [REDACTED] X/RICHARDS, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] posing behind the corpses which were depicted in the urination video. All mission participants were identified and interrogated. None of the participants admitted to engaging in or witnessing the acts. Numerous individuals positively identified the subjects as being depicted in the video and/or "trophy" photographs. All of the subjects of this investigation declined to waive their rights or make a statement. Numerous items of electronic media were seized; however, forensic examinations remain on-going. Investigation identified the Internet website YouTube as the likely location of the first video posting. A DODIG subpoena was obtained and served to YouTube's owner, Google, Incorporated, in an attempt to identify the individual who posted the video to the Internet; however, results remain pending.

NARRATIVE

1. This reactive investigation pertains to suspected violations of Article 92 (Failure to obey order or regulation), of the Uniform Code of Military Justice.
2. This investigation was initiated on 11Jan12, after [REDACTED] USMC, Deputy Staff Judge Advocate, II MEF, Camp Lejeune, NC, reported a video depicting what appeared to be four Marines urinating on dead enemy combatants in Afghanistan was posted on multiple Internet websites. [REDACTED] requested NCIS initiate an investigation relative to potential Law of Armed Conflict violations.
3. NCIS subsequently located the urination video on the Internet. Initially, the urination video was found to have been uploaded to the Internet video-sharing website "YouTube.com" (YouTube) by YouTube user [REDACTED] on 10Jan12. However, additional online searches revealed the urination video was likely first posted to YouTube by YouTube user [REDACTED] on 10Jan12. Of note, YouTube user account [REDACTED] was created on 10Jan12, and the urination video was the only video uploaded before the account was deactivated on 10Jan12. Preservation request letters were forwarded to YouTube's owner, Google, Incorporated, which requested YouTube preserve information relative to the aforementioned user accounts. Exhibits (1) through (4) pertain.

4. A Department of Defense Inspector General subpoena was obtained and subsequently served to Google in an attempt to identify

██████████. The results of the service of the subpoena remain pending. Exhibit (5) pertains.

5. ██████████ USMC, former Commanding Officer, Third Battalion, Second Marine Regiment (3/2), Camp Lejeune, NC, was interviewed, wherein he advised he had viewed the urination video and recognized three of the individuals depicted as ██████████ and X/RICHARDS. ██████████ reported he was unsure as to the identity of the fourth individual but related it may have been ██████████

██████████ USMC. ██████████ advised 3/2 had deployed to Afghanistan from March to September 2011 and he thought the video had been taken during the deployment. ██████████ described his implementation of the Ethical Warrior Program for 3/2, which pertained to how he expected 3/2 to conduct itself while deployed. ██████████ explained he often used the term "lone voice" when talking to members of the battalion regarding when they should "do what is right even when no one is looking." ██████████ provided a voluntary written sworn statement describing his knowledge of the urination video and 3/2's deployment. Exhibits (6) and (7) pertain.

6. Initial interviews of 3/2 command leadership personnel resulted in the development of information regarding typical employment of Scout Sniper Platoon personnel as well as information indicating the urination video may have been produced during a mission conducted in late July 2011. ██████████ and X/RICHARDS were identified as being depicted in the video. The fourth individual depicted in the video was identified as possibly a Marine whose last name started with the letter ██████████. Additionally, once command was aware of the video, ██████████ USMC, reportedly indicated his Scout Sniper Platoon team was associated with the video. Exhibit (8) pertains.

7. ██████████ and X/RICHARDS were identified as members of Scout Sniper Platoon, 3/2, during 3/2's 2011 deployment to Afghanistan. Specifically, ██████████ was identified as the Platoon Commander; ██████████ was identified as the Platoon Sergeant; and X/RICHARDS was identified as the Team Leader for Team Four of the platoon. A complete roster of personnel assigned to the platoon at the beginning of the deployment, as well as a roster of personnel assigned to the platoon at the completion of the deployment, was obtained. Exhibit (9) pertains.

8. An anonymous tip was received by NCIS wherein ██████████ and ██████████ were identified by the tipster as being depicted in the urination video. Exhibit (10) pertains.

9. An interrogation of ██████████ was attempted; however, ██████████ declined to waive his Article 31(b) rights or make a statement. ██████████ declined to provide permissive authorization to conduct searches of his property. The interrogation was audio and video

10. An interrogation of X/RICHARDS was attempted; however, X/RICHARDS declined to waive his Article 31(b) rights or make a statement. X/RICHARDS declined to provide permissive authorization to conduct searches of his property. The interrogation was audio and video recorded. Exhibit (13) pertains.

11. An interrogation of [REDACTED] was attempted; however, [REDACTED] declined to waive his Article 31(b) rights or make a statement. The interrogation was audio and video recorded. Exhibit (14) pertains.

12. An interrogation of [REDACTED] was attempted; however, [REDACTED] declined to waive his Article 31(b) rights or make a statement. [REDACTED] declined to provide permissive authorization to conduct searches of his property. The interrogation was audio and video recorded. Exhibit (15) pertains.

13. Information was developed indicating the urination video was likely produced during a mission conducted by elements of Scout Sniper Platoon on 27Jul11. The mission was described as a "sniper/tank integrated operation" focused on the village of Sandala, which was located just south of Patrol Base 7171. The mission was noteworthy due to the recovery of the remains of the enemy killed in action. Exhibit (16) pertains.

14. After advisement and waiver of his Article 31(b) rights, [REDACTED] USMC, Team Four, Scout Sniper Platoon, 3/2, was interrogated. [REDACTED] was on the mission during which the urination video was produced; however, [REDACTED] denied any knowledge of the video or the acts depicted therein until he viewed it on the news. [REDACTED] advised he had seen a still shot of the video on the news on 11Jan12, wherein he identified [REDACTED] X/RICHARDS, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] as being depicted. [REDACTED] described the mission during which the video was produced. [REDACTED] provided a voluntary written sworn statement describing his knowledge of the mission and the video. The interrogation was audio and video recorded. Exhibit (17) pertains.

15. After advisement and waiver of his Article 31(b) rights, [REDACTED] USMC, Team Four, Scout Sniper Platoon, 3/2, was interrogated. [REDACTED] was on the mission during which the urination video was produced; however, [REDACTED] initially denied any knowledge of the video or the acts depicted therein contemporaneous to the mission. [REDACTED] described the mission during which the video was produced. After the mission, but while still deployed, [REDACTED] advised he viewed the video on the computer of a Marine identified only as [REDACTED] who he described as a white male, either a LCpl or Cpl, and an Engineer. [REDACTED] acknowledged the identities of the four individuals depicted in the video as [REDACTED] X/RICHARDS, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] advised after he viewed the video while on deployment he confronted X/RICHARDS; however, [REDACTED] did not provide any additional details regarding the confrontation. [REDACTED] related he knew he should have reported his knowledge of the acts depicted in the video; however, [REDACTED] advised he was concerned about the consequences of doing so. [REDACTED] indicated the likely outcome if he had reported the acts would have resulted in the dismantling of Scout Sniper Platoon. [REDACTED] declined to provide a voluntary written sworn statement. The interrogation was audio and video recorded. Exhibit (18) pertains.

16. [REDACTED] as described by [REDACTED] was identified as [REDACTED] USMC, Second Combat Engineer Battalion, Camp Lejeune, NC. Initial contact with [REDACTED] revealed he had possibly seen and possessed the urination video while on deployment to Afghanistan. After subsequent advisement and waiver of his Article 31(b) rights, [REDACTED] was interrogated. [REDACTED] advised he may have seen and possessed the video while on deployment, and that he may have received the video as a result of sharing photographs and videos with other Marines on deployment, which [REDACTED] indicated was customary. [REDACTED] denied any knowledge relative to who produced the video but he did identify one of the individuals depicted in the video as [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] provided permissive authorization to search an external hard drive, which was subsequently seized by NCIS. A re-interrogation of [REDACTED] was attempted; however, [REDACTED] declined to waive his Article 31(b) rights or make a statement. Exhibits (19) through (21) pertain.

17. Preliminary results of examination of [REDACTED] external hard drive revealed numerous videos and photographs depicting Marines apparently on deployment to Afghanistan. One particular file folder contained photographs and video files specific to the mission during which the urination video was produced. A high-quality, uncensored video file which depicted the urination acts was discovered. Apparent "trophy" photographs were discovered depicting Marines posing with rifles behind the same corpses as shown in the video. Three of the "trophy" photographs show [REDACTED] X/RICHARDS, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] posing behind the corpses. Three other "trophy" photographs show [REDACTED] in the place of [REDACTED] wherein [REDACTED] is holding [REDACTED] distinctive rifle. The corpses do not appear to have been urinated on in the "trophy" photographs. Other video and photograph files pertaining to the mission, to include helmet camera footage taken by [REDACTED] and [REDACTED], were also discovered. A review of the mission related footage and other data from [REDACTED] external hard drive remains pending. Exhibits (22) through (24) pertain.

18. After advisement and waiver of his Article 31(b) rights, [REDACTED] USN, Scout Sniper Platoon, 3/2, was interrogated. [REDACTED] was on the mission during which the urination video was produced as a Corpsman; however, [REDACTED] denied any knowledge of the video or the acts depicted therein until it was publicized via the media. [REDACTED] described the mission during which the video was produced. [REDACTED] identified [REDACTED] X/RICHARDS; [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] as being depicted in the video. Before the end of the deployment, [REDACTED] related he heard unidentified individuals talking about X/RICHARDS and "something with the bodies." [REDACTED] declined to provide a voluntary written sworn statement; however, he related
